

Verbally or physically attacking people because of their race, religion, sexual orientation, transgender status or disability is a

HATE CRIME

If it happens to you, you can report it, in confidence:

- by going directly to the Police
- online at www.strathclyde.police.uk
- by contacting one of the third party reporting centres in Glasgow.

For more information on Hate Crime and a list of Third Party Reporting centres:

- look out for this leaflet at venues across Glasgow
- visit www.strathclyde.police.uk
- contact Glasgow Community and Safety Services on 0141 276 7724 or e-mail: gcssenquiries@glasgow.gov.uk

The leaflet is available in a variety of formats.